

Loudoun County Board of Supervisors

2012 – 2015

Scott K. York Chairman, At Large

Scott K. York was elected as Chairman of the Board of Supervisors in November 1999 after serving one term on the Board as the Sterling District Representative. He was re-elected in 2003 and 2007. As Chairman, he was instrumental in the passage of the county's revised Comprehensive Plan and Remapping/Zoning Ordinance amendments implementing "Smart Growth" in Loudoun County.

He serves on the Board of Supervisors' Economic Development Committee. He also represents Loudoun County on the Northern Virginia Transportation Authority (NVTa) and serves as its treasurer.

Chairman York served on the Loudoun County Planning Commission from 1992 through 1995. On past Boards he has served as Land Use Committee Chairman and also Economic Development Committee Chairman.

Chairman York serves and has served in a variety of regional leadership positions. He has served as Chairman of the Virginia High-Growth Coalition, which he founded, and currently serves on the executive committee. He has also been Treasurer of the Northern Virginia Planning District Commission and Chaired the Northern Virginia Regional Commission. He currently serves on the Executive Committee for the VA Association of Counties.

He and his wife JoAnn have four children – Joshua, Elizabeth, Justin, and Laura. They live in Sterling.

Suzanne M. Volpe Algonkian District

Suzanne M. Volpe was elected to represent the Algonkian District on the Board of Supervisors in November 2011.

A native of Northern Virginia, she earned a bachelor's degree in communications studies from Virginia Tech. She is currently employed by the Potomac Corporation of Virginia, Inc., which is a Loudoun-based business.

She currently serves as vice president for the Sterling Graduate Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. She has served on the Loudoun County Library Board of Trustees, the Loudoun County Planning Commission and the Loudoun County Commission on Aging. She has also served as Secretary of the Our Lady of Hope Catholic School PTO, President of the Cascades Community Association and a member of the Loudoun Arts Council Board of Directors.

She and her husband, Glenn Jones, reside in Cascades with their daughter, Faith.

Ralph Buona Ashburn District

Ralph Buona was elected to represent the Ashburn District on the Board of Supervisors in November 2011.

He is Telos Corporation's senior vice president of corporate business development, where he is responsible for overseeing the expansion of each Telos business unit through the acquisition of new opportunities. Prior to assuming this position, he was the vice president and general manager of Telos Managed Solutions where he managed the $120 million Managed Solutions Division of Telos. He joined Telos in 1994 and has also served in a variety of roles, including vice president of product development cultivating new offerings in the areas of information operations/assurance, enterprise management, enterprise integration, wireless networking, advanced messaging and traditional systems integration.

Before joining Telos, he served in numerous management and executive positions with Cincinnati Bell Information Systems, Federal Information Technologies, and Contel Information Systems. He began his career as an Air Force Officer, concluding his military service at Air Force Space Command and NORAD, where he was responsible for managing software development and information assurance activities associated with the advanced early warning missile defense systems. He earned a B.S. in Management from the U.S. Air Force Academy and an M.S. in Systems Management from the University of Southern California.

He is also active in numerous trade organizations such as the Homeland Security and Defense Business Council, the Air Force Association, the Navy League, the Army Association, and the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association.

He has served on the Board of Directors of the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce since 2005, serving as Chairman of the Board in 2010. He also was appointed to the Loudoun County Economic Development Commission in 2010 and has been a member of the Loudoun County CEO Cabinet. Additionally, he served on the Route 7 Task Force, developing solutions to the corridor's transportation challenges.

He has served on the Good Scout awards committee which raises significant funds for the Goose Creek District of the Boy Scouts, participates in the Loudoun Chamber's non-profit initiative, and works with and supports numerous local charities such as Loudoun Cares and Loudoun Inter-Faith Relief.

Janet Clarke
Blue Ridge District

Janet Clarke was elected to represent the Blue Ridge District on the Board of Supervisors in November 2011. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Community Interrelations from George Mason University and a Master's degree in Educational Leadership and Administration from George Washington University. She is also licensed to teach Business & Marketing in secondary schools.

She spent fifteen years in the technology field, including as a business development director for a large government contractor. She sold to government agencies, created partnerships for teaming arrangements as well as negotiated contracts and managed proposal efforts. She left the technology industry to pursue work in education and to expand her involvement in the community. She has spent eleven years working in the Loudoun County Public Schools central office, as well as in temporary teaching assignments.

In 2005, she established a Teen Center in Purcellville, and wrote a Youth Teen Activities Directory for western Loudoun teens. She served a three-year appointment to the Loudoun County Community Services Board, as well as a two-year appointment to the Purcellville Town Council, where she served on the Public Safety Committee, the Infrastructure Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee. She was appointed to the committee of three who successfully negotiated the resolution that led to getting Woodgrove High School built.

She has also been a member of numerous organizations and has decades of volunteer work, including starting and running a community-based English as a Second Language program and substance abuse and violence prevention programs. She has been the Program Director of Women and Men in Telecommunications, the Chair of the Community Organization for Prevention Education, held various positions in scouting, is a member of the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce, the Purcellville Business and Professional Association, the Rotary Club, and the Farm Bureau. She was recently awarded "Rotarian of the Year" 2011 by the Rotary Club of Purcellville.

She grew up in Fairfax County and has lived in Loudoun County for over 13 years. She has been married to her husband, Tom, for 24 years and they have three children. Her oldest son is an adult, her daughter is a sophomore in college, and her youngest son is a senior in high school.

Shawn Williams
Broad Run District

Shawn M. Williams was elected to represent the Broad Run District on the Board of Supervisors in November 2011.

He was born and raised on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

He has a bachelor's degree in science, a master's in business administration, and a juris doctorate. He began his career serving his country as an active duty U.S. Marine. He has held high-level legal positions for companies such as Raytheon and ASC. Currently, he is the federal counsel for Sprint.

He is a member of the Virginia State Bar Association, the National Contract Management Association and the Association for Corporate Counsel.

He resides in Broadlands with his wife Joy and their three children. They attend Our Saviors Way Lutheran Church.

Geary Higgins
Catoctin District

Geary Higgins was elected to represent the Catoctin District on the Board of Supervisors in November 2011. He is the Vice President of Labor Relations for NECA, Inc. in Bethesda, Maryland. In that capacity, he serves on numerous industry-related educational and training boards and as a healthcare and pension trustee. He is also an arbitrator for the Industrial Relations Council.

He served as the Catoctin Representative on the Loudoun County School Board from 2000 to 2004 and was the Chairman of the Personnel Services Committee. He also served on the Discipline Committee and the Legislative and Policy Committee.

A graduate of Clarion University in Clarion, Pennsylvania, he received a Business Administration degree, with a double major in management and marketing. He attended college on an athletic scholarship for wrestling.

He has been a Board Member for the Loudoun Museum since 1998. He has served as the Vice President, Treasurer and as Chairman of the Education Committee.

He was born in Baltimore and grew up in Montgomery County, Maryland. He and his wife Gail moved to Loudoun County in 1977 and live near Waterford. They are members of the Hamilton Baptist Church. They have three daughters who graduated from Loudoun Valley High School - Melissa, Megan, and Molly. They have two grandsons; Noah and Nathan.

Matt Letorneau Dulles District

Matthew F. Letourneau was elected to represent the Dulles District on the Board of Supervisors in November 2011.

He currently serves as Director of Communications and Media for the Institute for 21st Century Energy at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Prior to joining the Chamber, he was the Republican Communications Director for the U.S. Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources. Early in his career, he served as press secretary for U.S. Senator Pete Domenici of New Mexico, as an aide to U.S. Senator Jon Kyl of Arizona and as a White House intern.

In Loudoun, he was formerly president of a large condominium unit owners association and served as Dulles District chairman of the Loudoun County Republican Committee.

Originally from central Massachusetts, he was a cum laude graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington D.C. While at Catholic University, he met his future wife Margaret. They were married in 2005. They have three children – Patrick, Emily and Brendan. They currently reside in Loudoun Valley Estates and attend Saint Theresa Catholic Church in Ashburn.

Ken Reid Leesburg District

Ken Reid was elected to represent the Leesburg District on the Board of Supervisors in November 2011.

He was twice elected to the Leesburg Town Council in 2006 and 2010 and served until Dec. 31, 2011. While on the Town Council, Reid was the town's liaison to the Northern Virginia Regional Commission, Dulles Area Transportation Association (DATA), Virginia Municipal League Transportation Policy Committee, and also served as the Council's liaison to the Town's Board of Architectural Review, Economic Development Commission, Tree Commission and Standing Residential Traffic Committee.

Prior to his election to the Leesburg Council in 2006, Reid served on the Leesburg Environmental Advisory Commission and Loudoun County Transportation Safety Commission.

A longtime civic activist in the transportation field in the Greater Washington Region, Reid has organized citizen-action groups to support the completion of Battlefield Parkway, the paving of Sycolin Road to Ashburn, the promotion of bus rapid transit and express toll lanes in the Dulles Corridor and in 2010-11 helped organize a successful petition drive to put the issue of changing town elections from May to November on the 2011 ballot. Voters approved the referendum.

Reid holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Rutgers and a master's degree in journalism from the University of Missouri.

By profession, Reid is editor, publisher and owner of Washington Information Source Co., a newsletter publishing and book distribution business. He is the husband of Dr. Lynn Reid, Ph.D., who is director of the Loudoun County Area Agency on Aging. They have resided in Tavistock Farms in Leesburg since 2002 with their twins, James and Lara, and attend Congregation Sha'are Shalom. Reid also is a member of the Loudoun County Branch of the NAACP and the Reid family volunteers at the Interfaith Relief Food Pantry in Leesburg.

Eugene Delgaudio Sterling District

Eugene Delgaudio was elected to the Board of Supervisors representing the Sterling District in November 1999, and was re-elected in 2003 and 2007. He serves on the Board of Supervisors' Public Safety/Human Services Committee, and represents Loudoun County on the Dulles Area Transportation Association (DATA).

He previously served as chairman of the Board's Finance/Government Services Committee, and represented Loudoun County on the Virginia Regional Transportation Association (VRTA), Northern Virginia Transportation Commission, Route 28 Transportation Improvement District Commission, and Potomac Watershed Roundtable. He also formerly represented the Board of Supervisors on the Loudoun County Transportation Safety Committee, Joint Committee of the County of Loudoun and Town of Leesburg, and Loudoun County Board of Supervisors/School Board Joint Committee.

He served as Executive Director and is now President of Public Advocate of the U.S., a conservative non-profit organization which supports a program of limited government and reduced taxes. For 10 years he served on the board of directors of the national non-profit organization, Young Americans for Freedom.

He received a bachelor's degree in political science from York College in New York in 1976. He is a member of Rotary International, and served as secretary of a Cub Scouts pack for five years.

He and his wife Sheila have six children.